AFRICAN RETREAT
& WALKING SAFARIS

Step off the beaten path and into the untamed wilderness on a walking safari. Follow ancient animal trails, feel the grounding connection with the earth beneath your feet, and let the soothing rustle of leaves calm your mind. Each step immerses you in the healing energy of nature, rejuvenating your soul and deepening your connection to the heart of the wild.

KEY REASONS WHY A WILDERNESS WALKING EXPERIENCE IS FOR YOU:

Immersive Wilderness Experience – Walk through untouched landscapes, experiencing nature up close.

Peace & Tranquillity – Disconnect from technology and embrace the solitude of the wild.

Wildlife Encounters – A chance to see the Big 5 on foot, creating a thrilling sense of anticipation.

Physical & Mental Well-being – Improve fitness while enjoying fresh air and stunning scenery.

Adventure & Discovery – Explore hidden gems like ancient rock formations and secret river pools.

Guided Learning – Expert FGASA - qualified guides share insights on wildlife, bird calls, and survival skills.

Bonding & Storytelling – Create lasting memories around the campfire with shared stories from the wild.

Personal Growth – Stepping out of your comfort zone fosters confidence and resilience.

Exclusive Wilderness Access – Explore the Umbabat Wilderness Area adjacent to Kruger, a vast Big 5 territory

Unique, Non-Demarcated Trails – Every walk is different, guided by wildlife activity and tracking signs.

Walks typically last 4-5 hours in the morning session (which starts at sunrise). In the afternoon we will conduct a nature-based game drive with a sundowner which will be between 2-3 hours long (another walk is also optional, to be discussed with your ranger).

MEET OUR EXPERIENCED TEAM

Jeremy Schreiner

Jeremy discovered his true calling as a Trail Guide after starting his career in Physiotherapy. Drawn by the untamed beauty of the African bush, he left the Netherlands to deepen his knowledge and pursue his passion for guiding. With experience in Primitive Trails and a keen interest in tracking and trailing, time spent with Jeremy is always insightful and rewarding. For him, the best moments are what he calls 'Dirt Time'—fully immersed in the wilderness.

Marius Renke

Marius is a seasoned Wilderness Trails Guide with nearly 30 years of experience, including a distinguished career at South African National Parks, where he last served as a Section Ranger. With a background in Nature Conservation and as a Professional Trails Guide, he carries a deep well of knowledge and expertise. But more than anything, Marius is at his best when he's on foot in the African wilderness—where he truly feels at home.

Lola Seeber

Lola's journey from the streets of Paris to the untamed wilderness of Africa is nothing short of remarkable. Born in Johannesburg, her heart has always belonged to the wild, drawing her back to spend more time in remote, untamed landscapes. After extensive training and countless hours on foot under the African sun, she has flourished as a rising star in walking safaris. Passionate about botany—especially trees—Lola brings a deep understanding of nature's interconnectedness and the vital role it plays in human well-being. For her, the wild isn't just a place to explore—it's where she truly belongs.

Josh Radloff

Nicknamed Xakubasa after the legendary white lion of the Timbavati, Josh brings a sense of calm and serenity to every walk through the African bush. Known for his impressive beard and exceptional Trail Guiding expertise, he offers guests not just knowledge, but a deeper, more immersive understanding of the natural world.

DINING AT AFRICAN RETREAT & WALKING SAFARIS

Savour the flavours of the African bush with a dining experience that blends tradition, atmosphere, and warm hospitality. Enjoy a fresh, buffet-style continental breakfast and a generous selection of cooked meals at The Lounge, our outdoor lounge, where you can take in the crisp morning air and watch wildlife gather by the river.

Evenings bring a touch of magic with open-air boma dinners, framed by lantern-lit trees and the warmth of a crackling fire. The rhythmic beat of drumming signals the start of an unforgettable meal under the stars. For a more intimate experience, bush dinners in remote wilderness settings offer a truly immersive way to dine in nature.

Pre-dinner drinks, nightcaps, or a quiet coffee can also be enjoyed at The Lounge, making it the perfect spot to unwind or grab a light snack before setting off on an early morning walking safari.

Don't hesitate to reach out to us if you need further info.

WALKING SAFARIS FAQs

BEST TIME FOR WALKING SAFARIS

- Dry season (April–October) is ideal because vegetation is lower, and animals gather around water sources. Wet season (November – March) is not ideal with chances of rain showers, thicker vegetation and high temperatures (and humidity).
- Cooler mornings are preferred for walking before the heat builds up.

PACE & DURATION

- Walks typically last 4-5 hours in the morning session (which starts at sunrise). In the afternoon we will conduct a nature-based game drive with a sundowner which will be between 2-3 hours long (another walk is also optional, to be discussed with your ranger).
- Distances of the walks are between 5 and 10 km but can vary considering tracking opportunities. No set trails are followed as the most constant thing in the wilderness is change.
- The pace is slow, allowing for observation and learning.
- The fitness level needs to be moderate. There will be some distance covered, but all will be done at the groups own pace. The walks are not a A to B mission, but rather an engaging experience.

SAFETY & EXPERT GUIDANCE

- You'll always be accompanied by two highly trained guides and armed rangers.
- Guides will teach you how to read animal behaviour and stay safe.
- Walks are usually conducted in areas where dangerous encounters can be managed.

WILDLIFE ENCOUNTERS

- You may see big animals like elephants, giraffes, buffalo, and even predators from a safe distance.
- Expect closer encounters with smaller creatures like birds, insects, and plant life.
- Tracking animals by their footprints, dung, and other signs is a big part of the experience.

DESTINATION UMBABAT

- The Umbabat Private Nature Reserve (UPNR) is an 18,000 ha private nature reserve in Mpumalanga, South Africa. It is situated in an area bordered by Timbavati, Klaserie and Kruger National Park. Collectively, the private nature reserves are called the Associated Private Nature Reserves (APNR). It is known as the Heart of the Greater Kruger, as it is located in the middle of the APNR and Kruger National Park.
- The UPNR was proclaimed in 1969 and at that stage was only a 7500 ha reserve. Since the minimum size of 15,000 ha was required to be a member of the APNR, the reserve was expanded in 1991 to include the share-block reserves upon request from the Klaserie and Timbavati reserves. The original 7500 ha Umbabat became known as Group 13, and much later, Group 13 changed its name Umbabat Wilderness Conservation Association (UWCA). Motswari is part of the Group 13 and is the only lodge with commercial access in this vast wilderness area.

MEDICAL CLEARANCE REQUIREMENT

- For the safety and wellbeing of all our guests, those wishing to participate in a guided bush walk who are aged 65 years or older will be required to present a medical clearance certificate upon arrival. This ensures guests are fit to enjoy this immersive experience in our natural surroundings.

ABOUT THE TIMBAVATI AND UMBABAT PRIVATE NATURE RESERVES

The breathtaking Timbavati and Umbabat Private Nature Reserves form part of the Associated Private Nature Reserves region, which borders on the Kruger National Park. The Timbavati and Umbabat Private Nature Reserves share an unfenced border with the Kruger National Park, which allows animal species to move freely between these expansive parks. Guests can therefore look forward to exceptional game viewing moments. The region is easily accessible by air or road and is a six- to seven-hour drive from Johannesburg. The climate in this area is subtropical and rains fall during summer. The warmer months of the year roll in from October to March, whereas winter is from April to September.

Generally speaking, daytime temperatures are pleasant, but mornings and evenings can be cool.
