DINING AT CASA LUMA

Soak in the vibrancy of Cape Town’s Atlantic Seaboard as you savour Mediterranean flavours, infused with international inspiration and local flair.

SÓTANO • CELLAR, SPANISH

Internationally infused Mediterranean dining

Sótano takes you from coast to luxe comfort, blending the relaxed feel of oceanside dining and the inviting atmosphere of a reimagined cellar, characterised by modern design features, a beautiful wine display, a cosy fireplace and soft lighting.

Delight in our Mediterranean-style menu, curated with hints of Lebanese, French, Spanish and Mauritian influences. Our menu places special emphasis on freshly made seafood dishes and small plate options, made for sampling, exploring combinations and celebrating the culture of shared dining.

Fresh from the Cape coast

Enjoy the innovative flavours of our sushi and sashimi creations, along with other seafood dishes, crafted at our raw bar while you absorb views of the Atlantic Ocean alongside our open kitchen or from our terrace.

Breakfast spreads

Ease into the day as you savour a generous harvest-table spread, featuring artisan creations, fresh local ingredients and a Mediterranean-inspired pantry selection or hot breakfast dishes, made to order, while you relax in the cool, calm of our cellar or bask in the ocean breeze on our terrace.

Sophisticated lounging

Lounge and linger as you relish sunset moments and slow evenings, with the gentle city buzz and roll of rhythmic waves in the background. Our skilled bartenders serve a selection of aperitivos, premium cocktails, signature serves made with quality spirits and fresh ingredients, as well as wines and cap classiques, many offered by the glass, drawn from the finest South African cellars.

Our wine list also features a family-estate wine, produced exclusively for Sótano in Franschhoek.
